INTERROGATION; ADVICE OF RIGHTS

YOUR RIGHTS

Place Mt. Waukelee Wisc
 Date 4-7-95
 Time 8:40 AM

Before we ask you any questions, you must understand your rights.

You have the right to remain silent.

Anything you say can be used against you in court.

You have the right to talk to a lawyer for advice before we ask you any questions and to have a lawyer with you during questioning.

If you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be appointed for you before any questioning if you wish.

If you decide to answer questions now without a lawyer present, you will still have the right to stop answering at any time. You also have the right to stop answering at any time until you talk to a lawyer.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

I have read this statement of my rights and I understand what my rights are. I am willing to make a statement and answer questions. I do not want a lawyer at this time. I understand and know what I am doing. No promises or threats have been made to me and no pressure or coercion of any kind has been used against me.

Dear [Redacted]

Re: [Redacted]

I enclose the originals of the six letters you requested along with the envelopes in which they arrived. I have also included an explanation of how Nos. 1 and 2 were reversed in my earlier letter.

You asked whether there had been any mail communications since [Redacted] arrest, and the answer is yes there have been.

Please call me if you need any more information.

Message: Re Note that I have sent these letters in order according to their statements rather than their dates. When we spoke by phone, you attributed the statements in Letter No. 2 to a letter dated February 1, and vice versa. So, I've sent the letters in the order of the statements rather than the dates. Please let me know if this is unclear in any way and I'll clarify for you. Also, to insure that you have everything needed, I'm sending the entire package of original letters to you for Monday morning delivery.

Thanks very much for your assistance on this matter!

P.S. I'm sending these 6 letters by Fed Ex for delivery on Saturday.
